

Douglas E. Warner

3 School House Road Newville, PA 17241-9409
(717) 503-9006 resume@silfreed.net

Objective

To obtain a challenging position in a dynamic work environment as a network administrator or web architect

Skills

Networking

- Designing monitoring systems for mid-large networks
- Server Farm Maintenance
- 2 years Cisco Experience

Programming Languages: C/C++, Java, PHP, Perl

Proficient in Various Operating Systems (Linux, Windows 9x/NT/2000)

Web Design

- Specialized in Database Driven Websites
- XHTML, CSS, SSL, PHP, Perl, MySQL, and Javascript

Work Experience

Cumberland Technologies Int'l – ISP (d.b.a. PAdotNET)

April 2001- present

Network Engineer, Web Programmer, Database Engineer

Mechanicsburg, PA

- Implemented problem detection and notification system to maintain high availability of network routers and servers
- Maintained Routers and Network Access Servers (NAS) including a large OSPF network and BGP sessions to our upstream providers
- Technical Lead responsibilities included designing and implementing a PHP web interface for 10 websites of a multi-state ISP using a centralized MySQL database backend
- Developed an update caching system for our Linux server farm
- Installed and configured call center PBX, which includes a large VoIP network

Virtual University - Shippensburg University

Fall 1999 - Spring 2000

Web Master/Designer

Shippensburg, PA

- Architected and implemented portal web site for multi-university distance education project
- Worked with Professors to develop online classrooms and determine appropriate content delivery mechanisms

Education

Shippensburg University

Fall 1998 - Spring 2002

Bachelors of Science Degree in Computer Science

Shippensburg, PA

3.4/4.0 GPA in Major

3.28/4.0 Cumulative GPA